

Jackson & Graham, attributed. A Fine Quality Moorish Mahogany Overmantel or Wall Shelf

Ref: PV003929

£5,800

|            |                                                                 |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| MAKER      | Jackson & Graham                                                |
| PERIOD     | Aesthetic Movement , 1880-1889                                  |
| YEAR       | 1880                                                            |
| STYLE      | Moorish                                                         |
| ORIGIN     | United Kingdom                                                  |
| MATERIALS  | Mahogany, Boxwood, Mirror                                       |
| DIMENSIONS | H: 49.21 in (125 cm)   W: 62.2 in (158 cm)   D: 9.06 in (23 cm) |
| CONDITION  | Good                                                            |

About this piece

Jackson and Graham attributed

A fine quality Moorish mahogany overmantel or wall shelf, with carved floral decoration to the central upper pediment and a display shelf below. Seven central Moorish niches with carvings and mahogany and boxwood turnings. A central beveled mirror surrounded by boxwood mashrabiya turnings with a deep boxwood fretwork floral panel to the base, flanked by shallow inline carvings.

The two large pentagonal shelves to each side with further mashrabiya turnings, Moorish arches with boxwood turnings, and square beveled mirrors below.