

Liberty & Co., An Arts & Crafts Pewter Inkwell with Violet Enamel Decoration

Ref: PV003652

£1,800

|            |                                                               |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| MAKER      | Liberty & Co.                                                 |
| DESIGNER   | Liberty & Co.                                                 |
| PERIOD     | Arts & Crafts Movement , 1900-1909                            |
| YEAR       | 1900                                                          |
| STYLE      | Arts and Crafts                                               |
| ORIGIN     | United Kingdom                                                |
| MATERIALS  | Pewter, Enamel                                                |
| DIMENSIONS | H: 3.5 in (8.89 cm)   W: 6 in (15.24 cm)   D: 6 in (15.24 cm) |
| CONDITION  | Good                                                          |

About this piece

Liberty & Co., Regent Street

An English Arts & Crafts Pewter Inkwell with violet-coloured enamel decoration to the top, and to each of the circles at the four corners. Stamped 9. T UD RI C. 0141. Made in England.

J. Liberty launched its Tudric pewter range in 1902. Initially, Liberty imported as well as commissioned items from other makers until they invested in the firm W. H. Haseler in Birmingham. Haseler manufactured all pewterware for Liberty until 1926.